

Patient ID: _____ Date: _____

The following questions concern those times when you carry on a conversation with a frequent communication partner. Please circle only one number to provide your answer. You may write NA if the situation never happens.

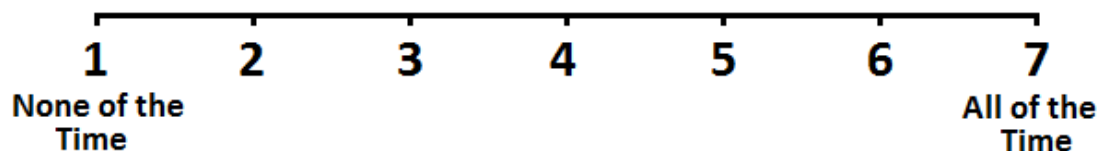

1. I am at home, sitting in a quiet room. My partner speaks to me from a nearby room. I understand:

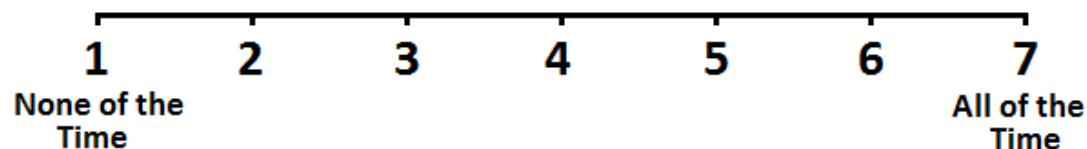

2. I am at home, watching television at my usual volume. My partner speaks to me from a nearby room. I understand:

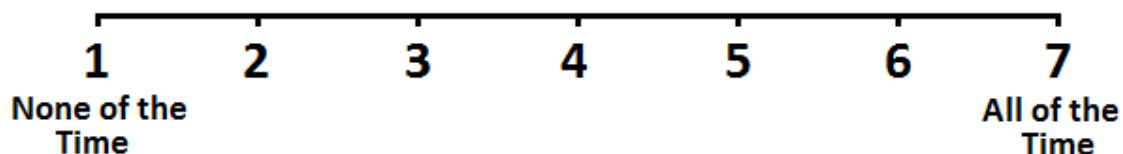

3. We are at home. During a typical conversation, I have to ask my partner to repeat something:

4. We are having dinner at a restaurant. There is background music. I have to ask my partner to repeat something:

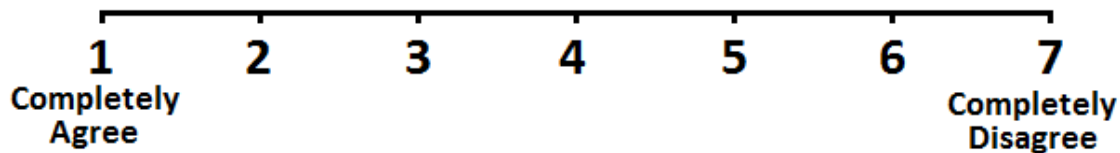

5. My partner is sitting in the backseat of the car. I am driving. I can understand every word my partner says:

Qualitative Outcomes Assessment for cLEAR (QOAC) ©

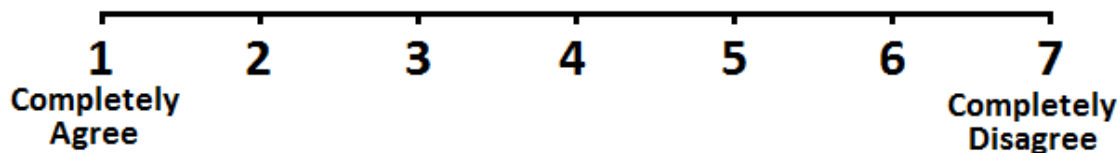

6. My partner and I are limited about we talk about because I have hearing loss.

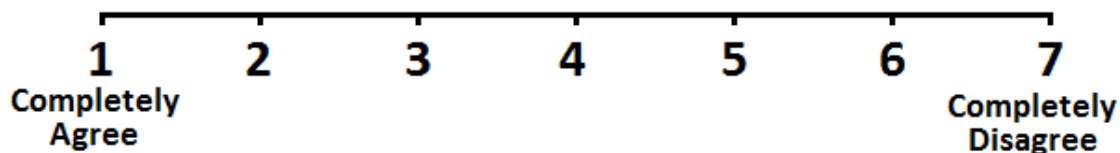

7. I experience frustration because of my hearing loss when I talk to my partner.

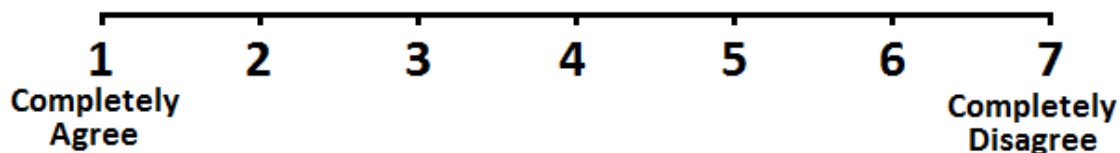

8. Because of my hearing loss, my partner and I do not engage in casual conversation.

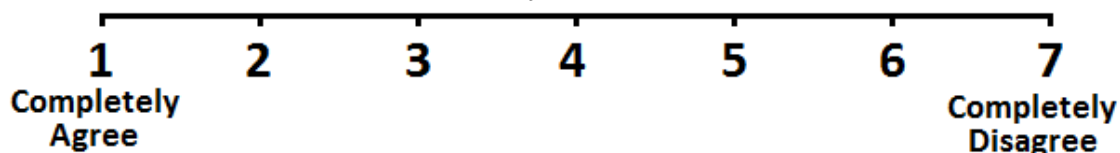

9. I avoid going to noisy places with my partner because I will have difficulty in understanding his/her speech.

10. I am satisfied with the ease with which my partner and I can carry on a conversation when we are in a quiet room.

11. I am satisfied with the ease with which my partner and I can carry on a conversation when we are in a noisy room.

Qualitative Outcomes Assessment for cLEAR (QOAC) ©

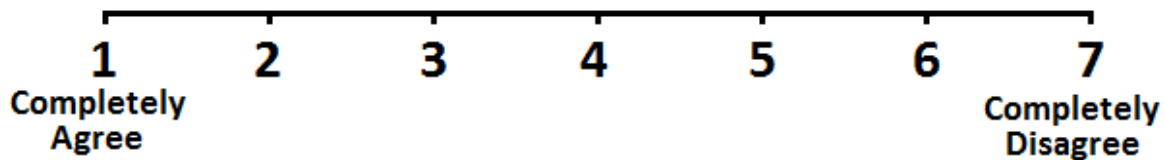

The following questions concern those times when you carry on a conversation with other people besides your partner. Please circle only one number to provide your answer. You may write NA if the situation never happens.

12. I am satisfied with the ease with which I can carry on a conversation with someone I do not know when we are in a noisy room.

13. I am satisfied with the ease with which I can carry on a conversation with someone I do not know when we are in a quiet room.

14. I feel confident that I will understand everything the person will say in a conversation when I am meeting this person for the first time.

